

HARRIS COUNTY OFFICIALS AID AND ABET PROPERTY SCHEME

By S. Harvey (NAREB)

"It's a perfect example of a 21st century hate crime."

In September 21, 1999, Darlene Hosea owns an over one acre urban home- stead in Harris County. She signed papers for a gift from Ameriquest Mort- gage Company. No harm right, except by mistake the gift was treated as a loan. She defaulted and they foreclosed. However, during that time in Texas it was illegal to take out a loan on urban property over one acre. The 76th Legislature via SJR22 increased the maximum size of urban homesteads to 10 acres, effective November 02, 1999. Therefore, there could not be a loan on urban property over one acre before Nov. 02,1999. Hosea, with Texas Constitution and legislated law in her pouch declared war against Harris County's racist plot to deny a black mother of her property.

Since 2008, Hosea filed numerous documents and she has spoke out to HC officials about the issue. "Judge Lena Hildago and Rodney Ellis were mute, HC Attorney's Office; Christian Menefee seemed dumb and District Attor- ney Kim Ogg acted blind," Hosea said.

The truth is, according to the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals, 29,241 sqft of land was used for collateral. The remainder is 20,417 sqft which is Hosea's interest. Yet, David Dennenberg, a bad acting broker, during the hurricane Ike recovery period, fraudulently took over 8000 sqft of Hosea's interest. He then illegally recorded 37,379 sqft to a not so innocent Mexican woman. Shortly, thereafter, Harris County Central Appraisal District (HCCAD) S. Saunders carved out an additional 12,423 sqft. She then attached a new ac- count number to it before routing it to the HC Flood Control District.

"At this time, we are looking for an attorney who can write a Writ of Man- damus, until then, we are hoping HCCAD will do the right thing by putting my name back on my interest so it can be properly recorded," Hosea said.

Live Large, Get Healthy!!

Sometimes less is better. I find this to be true when eating. Believe it, I can eat anything I want but the key is moderation. I eat 5 meals daily -3 portion size and 2 snacks. I am not overweight. I drink my fluids then I garden, ride my bike, or roller skate, etc. I keep active. Moderation not only helps your body but also helps your mind and spirit # By Staff Writer

Grow your roots because without the roots you can not have the leaves or the flowers or the fruit. For some, the roots are not ap- pealing to the eye, but they are necessary beauties for life.
